Greeting Letter

Tulsa Kendo Dojo is proud to host the 2022 SWKIF Spring Kendo Seminar and Shinsa. This event represents our first in-person SWKIF Seminar since COVID-19 lockdown. We are pleased to have Takuro Yamaoka Sensei (Kendo 5 Dan) as the chief instructor for the SWKIF Seminar. Yamaoka Sensei is the Team Captain of SWKIF and Team USA. The objective of the Seminar will focus on getting back in shape after COVID-19 and how to prepare for tournaments and Shinsa. We truly hope you and your dojo will consider registration.

Below this salutation you will find:

COVID-19 Safety Acknowledgement & Policy

COVID-19 Safety Information

While participating in 2022 SWKIF Spring Kendo Seminar and Shinsa, participants are encouraged to practice hand hygiene, “social distancing” and wear face coverings to reduce the risks of exposure to COVID-19. Tulsa Kendo Dojo cannot guarantee that its participants, volunteers, partners, or others in attendance will not become infected with COVID-19.

In light of the ongoing spread of COVID-19, individuals who fall within any of the categories below should not engage in the 2022 SWKIF Spring Kendo Seminar and Shinsa. By attending, you certify that you do not fall into any of the following categories:

1. Individuals who currently or within the past fourteen (14) days have experienced any symptoms associated with COVID-19, which include fever, cough, and shortness of breath among others;
2. Individuals who believe that they may have been exposed to a confirmed or suspected case of COVID-19 or have been diagnosed with COVID-19 and are not yet cleared as non-contagious

Tulsa Kendo Dojo Guidelines & Policy

Tulsa Kendo Dojo will be following COVID-19 safety policies and mask guidance from the Nation, State, CDC, AUSKF, local, and Charles Schusterman Jewish Community Center.

1. Masks are recommended in the gymnasium “based on the Covid 19 situation, at the time of the seminar, Subject to change”
2. Mouth guard/shield mask is recommended for Men.

Limited individual refunds may be available if participants need to cancel due to COVID-19.
